

Honors College
Study Abroad Request

Students in the Honors College may request Honors College course credit (courses designated HNRS in the catalog) for study abroad courses that are offered by George Mason University and do not already have HNRS courses approved for that study abroad experience. To have a course considered for Honors College course credit complete the application below and turn in the request by the appropriate deadline.

Personal Information

Name:
G-number:
Cumulative GPA:
Honors College GPA:
Major:
Mason Email:

Requested Information

Credit Requested For (select one):

- HNRS 122: Reading the Arts (Requirement Two)
- HNRS 130: Conceptions of Self (Requirement Two or Three)
- HNRS 131: Contemporary Society in Multiple Perspectives (Requirement Two)
- HNRS 230: Cross-Cultural Perspectives (Requirement Two or Three)
- HNRS 240: Reading the Past (Requirement Two)
- HNRS 300: Advanced Study Abroad (Requirement Three)

Please write a short essay, 250-500 words, detailing how you see the course you have selected for your study abroad experience fulfilling the Honors College course requirement you are seeking credit for (see the University Catalog, catalog.gmu.edu, for course descriptions to assist you in your answer).

Be sure you attach the course description for the study abroad course to your application.

Application Deadlines

Fall Semester Study Abroad: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• End of March	Spring Semester Study Abroad: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• End of September
Summer Study Abroad: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• End of February	Winter Break Study Abroad: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• End of September

Applications must be delivered to the Honors College office by 5pm on the last business day of the month that the application is due.